

I am concerned with the proposal to send data over power transmission lines. If there is any possibility of interference to the amateur service, I am opposed to it.